MACCA WINS QUELLE CHALLENGE – Roth, Germany, July 4th. After missing the win last year by a mere 3 seconds, KESTREL athlete Chris McCormack came back to this iron-distance race with the spirited determination to win. And that he did in convincing form, beating a stellar field and turning in a sub-8 hour performance:

- 7th fastest iron-distance time ever (7:47:50)
- 3rd fastest Roth marathon ever (2:40:23)
- 4th of 5 people to ever go under 8 hours at the Ironman-distance
- Only non-European athlete to ever break 8 hours
- First non-European to win in Roth
